

FAMILY WELFARE

- I. Family and its functions and importance in the society; Types of family and its characteristics; Major functions of the family : Biological, psychological, economic, social, religious, cultural and recreational; Family and social change ; changing pattern of family in India : Family Life Management ; Family Life Cycle : Development task of family members in different stages.
- II. Family in transition : family organisation; family disorganization and family reorganization; effects of broken home on children ; family diagnosis; family model; patterns of interaction among family members; Theories of family interaction; conflict and adjustment.
- III. Family life education : concept and need; principles; techniques, content and programme of family life education; interdisciplinary approach in family life education; social work methods and family life education.
- IV. Definition of Counselling : Family and marital counselling; Counselling in special situation; Factors contributing to mental conflicts; social determinants of family problems; marital violence : trends, implications and emerging issues; dimensions of maladjustment and its correlates; counselling and therapy; Integrated Family Therapy; Services available for counseling in India.
- V. Family Welfare : Need and scope in India; family welfare services in India; Family Welfare in Industry; Single parent families; Families in Crisis Situations; Families affected by terrorism and communal conflicts; Family supportive services.

References

- Ackerman, N.W., Psycho Dynamics of family welfare. Basic books Inc. New York.
- Fonseca Mabel : Counselling for Marital Happiness, Leansufala, Bombay.
- Indian Social Institute : The Family in the change and challenge of the Seventies, Sterling Publications, New Delhi.
- Core, M.S., Urbanisation and Family Change, Popular, Bombay.
- Kapadia, K.N. Marriage and Family in India, Oxford University Press, Delhi.
- Gupta, Ginja : Family and Social Change in Modern India (Ed.) Vol. II, Vikas Pub., Delhi.
- Jordon, William : The social Workers in Family Situation, Routledge & Kegan Paul, London.
- Family Welfare Programmes in India : Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Dept. of Family Welfare, Govt. of India, New Delhi.
- Social Work Education and Family Planning, : ASSWI, 1972.
- Krishna Chakraborty, Family in India, Rewat Publications, New Delhi, 2002.
- Family Life Education for Adolescent Girls, D. Sarada, Discovery Publishing House, New Delhi, 1999.
- Family Dynamics, Aruna Khas Giwala, Anmol Publications, New Delhi.
- Laxmi Devi, Encyclopedia of child and family welfare, Vol. I & II, Institute of Sustainable Development, Lucknow and Anmol Publication, New Delhi.