

Centre for Differently Abled Persons
Bharathidasan University Report of the Activities of Special lecture on Therapies for Inclusion

Dr.Senthilkumar,

Occupational therapist and rehabilitation professional gave a lecture on "Therapies for inclusion". He gave an overview and demonstration of the various therapies and devices that can enable the special children to learn and overcome their disability. 41 students from social work and education benefitted from the programme.

Dr.Amutha,

Department of Educational

technology gave a speech on technology innovations for inclusion.

Dr.Nirmala gave a special lecture on psychological and societal perspectives of exclusion of persons with disabilities.

Dr.M.Prabavathy, Organizer of the programme sensitize the participants on the current trend in therapies that supports inclusion.