

Report of the 14th NYPC at Bharathidasan University

The 14th Youth Parliament Competition was successfully conducted at Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli, Tamilnadu on 09.09.2017. The NYPC (National Youth Parliament Competition) was organized in the Convocation Hall of the University and there were 52 participants.

Hon'ble Member of Parliament Shree P. Kumar from Tiruchirappalli Constituency consented to be one of the judges and Dr. G. Baskaran, Professor and Dean, Faculty of English and Foreign Languages, Gandhigram Rural Institute (Deemed University), Dindigul accepted to be the academican of repute in the panel of judges. Dr. Pawan Kumar Sharma, Dean - Student Affairs, Kurukshetra University, Haryana, who was nominated by the Ministry headed the panel of judges.

Dr.V. Vinod Kumar, Professor of English and NYPC Coordinator welcomed the judges and introduced them to the participants and they also saw the display of photos related to Swachh Bharat activities conducted in Bharathidasan University.

Dr.R.Thirumurgan, Registrar-in-charge and Controller of Examinations offered his felicitations.

Then the Competitions began with the Swachh Bharat pledge and the entire competition took exactly 55 minutes. The panel of judges then discussed among themselves and reviewed the performance of the participants individually. They gave a few suggestions for further improvements.

The Competition came to an end with the vote of thanks by Dr. V. Vinod Kumar followed by National Anthem.

(V. VINOD KUMAR)