

WELFARE OF YOUTH AND AGED

Unit I

Profile of youth in Indian Society - Value, attitudes, behaviour and ideologies, Needs and problems of youth - Psychological, cultural, social, educational and occupational and early marriage.

Unit II

Services for youth welfare - Educational services, Educational and vocational guidance, youth counselling, marriage counselling : employment services, health and recreational services.

Unit III

Youth Movement in India : Youth welfare programmes in India - Scouts & Guides, NCC, YMCA, YWCA, Youth Exchange programmes, Youth Camps, Leadership programme ments Youth Festivals, Youth hostels & Youth clubs, (Yuvak Mandals) - Role of Social worker in youth welfare programme.

Unit IV

Status and problems of aged in India, role of social workers with Aged.

Unit V

Welfare programmes for aged - Institutional services, home for the Aged - Old age pension, Geriatric services.

Reference

1. Prayag Metha, The Indian youth - emerging problems and issues, edited by Somaiya Publications Pvt. Co.,
2. Charles B. Ramasamy, Problems of youth, a social problem perspective, University of Minnesota St. Paul Dickenson Publication company, Belmont, California.
3. Youth in India Today issued under the auspices of the world assembly of youth.
4. J.M. Enster, S.T., Psychological counselling in India, Macmillan co., Bombay, 1964.
5. Welfare of the Youth and Aged, Youth Cultural (Identity in a post modern world), Jonathon. S. Epstein, Black well Publishers Ltd., USA, 1998.
6. Care, P.K. Muttagi, Ageing Issues and Old age, Classical Publishing Company, New Delhi, 1997.
7. Dr. Pramod Kumar Bajpal, Youth education and unemployment, Ashish publishing House, New Delhi, 1992.
8. Dre. Paul Chowdary, Youth Participation and Development, Atma Ram & Sons New Delhi 1992.
9. Understanding Greying People of India, Arun P. Bali, Inter India Publications, New Delhi, 1999.