

A Report on the One Day Workshop on Ragging Free Campus

An One Day Workshop on Ragging Free Campus was organized by Bharathidasan University on 18 November, 2021 at 11:00 a.m. All the students' studying various Programmes in different departments of the University participated. Dr. K. Thamaraiselvi, Professor and ARC Member, Department of Environmental Bio-Technology, Bharathidasan University, welcomed the gathering. The Registrar of the University Dr. G. Gopinath, while inaugurating, insisted the students to How ragging is an embarrassing and silly one, but at the same time how much worst it is. How the individual students are affected by the Ragging? Student should be aware of ragging and should be known about the Anti- Ragging Cell Committee of Bharathidasan University which always there to reach out students at any time.

Mr. Karthikeyan, IPS, Commissioner of Police, Tiruchirappalli, Commissioner of Police Tiruchirappalli, delivered the Presidential address with poster distribution. He rightly point out Ragging is not always a physical but mental also. Most of the time, Ragging is done either to show power as Superior over the fresher's (or) just an act of Sadistic pleasure. It either way, it is the junior that suffer. He mentioned in his speech that any kind of ragging has to be reported and the remedial measures/actions are to be carried out through various sections of Indian Penal Code, laws from UGC and various other ragging welfare organizations. The Anti-Ragging Cell program came to end with the vote of thanks by Dr.P.Masilamani, Assistant Professor, University Nodal Officer, Ragging Prevention Committee.

