

Two day National Seminar on “Vision 2020: Dr A.P.J. Abdul Kalam’s Dreams through Women” in collaboration with Publication Division, Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli 15 & 16.10.2015

In collaboration with the Publication Division of Bharathidasan University, Department of Women's Studies organized a Two day National Seminar on “Vision 2020: Dr A.P.J. Abdul Kalam’s Dreams Through Women” during 15th& 16th Oct 2015. The objective of the seminar in to delve on APJ Abdul Kalam’s ideas about vision India 2020, To discuss the advantages of Science and Technology in India and to address the role of women in advancing vision India 2020. In the inaugural, Dr. V. M. Muthukumar delivered the presidential Address. In His address he said that the programmed was organized in correct time by correct people. He suggested following therememberable president Dr. Abdul Kalam’s view for good decisions by the young generation. A CD with Dr. A.P.J Abdul Kalam’s Views and thoughts was screened by Dr. N.Murugeswari. Ms. Uma, Superintendent of Police, Pudukkottai delivered the inaugural address. Dr.N.Manimekalai, Director & Head, Department of Women's Studies delivered the key note address on “ Kalam's Views on Women”. Mr. Narayanan, shared his experiences and characters of Kalam when they were studied in St. Joseph's College, Tirucirappalli. Dr. R. Mangaleswaran, member Syndicate delivered the Special address.Near 200 participants from various part of India were participated in the Two day National Seminar and presented their paper.