

One day Seminar on “Strategies for Improving Higher Education in Developing Countries” 26.10.2015

One day Seminar on “Strategies for Improving Higher Education in Developing Countries” was organized in collaboration with Department of Eco-Biotechnology, Bharathidasan University on 26.10.2015. Vice-Chancellors of University of Jaffna and South Eastern University of Sri Lanka, were invited as a Chief Guest. Prof. M.M.M Najim, Hon’ble Vice-Chancellor, South Eastern University of Sri Lanka, delivered the key note Address. In his address he said besides building infrastructure and human resources, equal importance should be given to improve the governance in education Institutions. There should be a wholistic working environment to attract best talent and retain them. The benefits would ultimately pass on to the students. He also highlighted the need for increasing allotment to education.

Prof. Ms. V. Arasaratnam, Hon’ble Vice-Chancellor, University of Jaffna, Srilanka, delivered the special address. In her speech, she said that the curriculum introduced by the British rulers had still been the base for the curriculum of school and higher education in the developing countries. Numerous of changes had been taken place since then. There is a need to relook at the curriculum. Dr. A. Selvam, Registrar i/c, Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli delivered the Presidential Address