
UGC-Sponsored One Day National Workshop on Public Safety of Women and Girls:
Issues, Challenges and Concerns 23.02.2017

UGC-Sponsored One Day National Workshop on Public Safety of Women and Girls: Issues, Challenges and Concerns was organised by the Department of Women's Studies, Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli on 23.02.2017. In the inauguration, Dr.N.Manimekalai, Director & Head welcomed the gathering and talked about the theme of the workshop. Dr. R. Mangaleswaran, member Syndicate and Assistant Professor, Dept. of Social Work delivered the presidential address. In the address, he insisted that every issue should be dealt with multidisciplinary approach. Dr.M.Thavamani, Professor, Dept. of Sociology delivered the special address. In the special address, he explained about the types of feminism, the history of feminist and how to deal a issue with gender perspective. Dr. Z. Annie Vijaya, delivered the key note address. In her speech, she highlighted the statistics of registered cases in the police station. She insisted that every woman should teach their son to respect women. Because he is waiting, watching and listening and learn to react in the future. Ms. Kamila, Director, Wind Trust, Trichy explained " Gender Based Violence against Women".